

STAND UP AGAINST POVERTY

On October 17, people all over the world will be holding events to literally stand up against poverty and create the largest global mobilization in history to support the Millennium Development Goals.

You can join in on this important effort with fellow students and community members in a Rally Against Poverty on the University of Michigan Diag at 7 pm on October 17.

Student and community advocacy groups will be hosting informational booths at the rally to deepen understanding of this worldwide crisis and offer volunteer opportunities.

(Rain Room for Rally: Angell Hall Auditorium B)

At 6 pm and 8 pm we will host a Poverty Teach-in in Mason Hall:

- Howard Stein: "The Millennium Development Goals", 6 pm in Mason Hall Room 3302
- Ivette Perfecto: "Poverty and Sustainable Agriculture", 6 pm in Mason Hall Room 3401
- Ian Robinson: "Why Are So Many People So Poor?", 6 pm in Mason Hall Room 3314
- Michael Gordon: "The Base of the Pyramid- Businesses Fighting Poverty", 8 pm in Mason Hall Room 3302
- Karen Schaumann: "Human Rights and Globalization", 8 pm in Mason Hall 3401
